

Boulder Height Hiking Club Camp Paul Hummel Rules and Member Agreement

1. Members recognize that Camp Paul Hummel is private property and their membership and access to the property is a privilege and not a right. This privilege may be revoked at any time.
2. The Club's "No Blame Waiver" must be signed prior to access to the property and remain on-file with the Club Coordinator.
3. Club members agree to carry a valid Boulder Heights Hiking Club ID Pass at all times while on the property. Anyone without a pass will be considered trespassing. Members agree to support the Camp by courteously checking other hikers for their passes and informing non-members of the rules for being on the property.
4. Members must live in Boulder Heights, Carriage Hills or the Sunshine Saddle neighborhoods. Members may invite a neighbor from those communities to experience the camp trails one time with them, after which the non-member must join or stay off camp property. One member with a club pass should be with each group of people.
5. Members may access the property from sunup to sundown by foot only. Members may use skis or snowshoes during the winter months. No motor vehicles or bicycles are allowed.
6. Members agree to enter and exit the property only through two gateways;
 - From Mine Lane - enter and exit next to the NW vehicle gate.
 - From the end of Skytrail Road next to the gated fire escape route.
7. Members must stay on approved trails, roads and access points. Members agree to stay out of the restricted areas that include:
 - a. The posted boundaries of the Gamelines Archery Range.
 - b. The fenced antenna area and equipment structure
 - c. The Camp compound where the cabins and common areas are located.
8. No smoking or alcoholic beverages are permitted.
9. The only animals permitted are dogs. Dogs must be leashed or be wearing a current Boulder County Sight and Sound tag. Owners must be registered in the program and follow all Boulder County guidelines for off-lease times. Dogs must be well socialized and disciplined for interactions with other humans and dogs. No aggressive behavior will be tolerated.
10. All persons under the age of 18 must be accompanied by an adult member while on the property.
11. Members agree to be courteous and respectful to all people they meet on camp property.
12. Members agree to stay off the property during Church summer camp dates. Normally, the camp is active 2-3 weeks during July and August. BHHC will post the restricted dates on its website, and signs will be posted at the entry points.
